

WORLD OF RADIO #1112, produced January 2, 2002 by Glenn Hauser

*Whether or not you heard my SW Year in Review on VOA last week, listen to and read an expanded version, via
<http://www.worldofradio.com/audiomid.html>

*Also new at our new site, <http://www.worldofradio.com/calendar.html>

*And the January edition of Nets to You,
<http://www.worldofradio.com/nets2you.html>

*2002 issues of DX Listening Digest are stored at
<http://www.worldofradio.com/dxldmid.html>

*Argentine political strife, but RAE always hard to hear, and on Jan 1 relaying home service anyway

*Better luck with SSB feeders of private stations, Cadena Tres, and Radio Continental

*Links to Argentine stations with webcasts in DXLD 1-210, viz.:
Rádio Cadena Eco <http://www.cadenaeoco.com.ar>
Rádio América <http://www.amradioamerica.com>
Rádio Once Diez - Ciudad <http://www.oncediez.com.ar>
Rádio Mitre <http://www.radiomitre.com.ar>
Rádio Rivadávia <http://www.rivadavia.sion.com>
Rádio Continental <http://www.continental.com.ar>

*These WOR summaries are now stored at
<http://www.worldofradio.com/wormid.html>

*New Peruvian last week is Radiodifusora Comercial, La Voz del Vecino

*Monitoring ``the babbler'' from Cuba

*CBC technicians' union CEP ratified strike settlement, back to work

*Iceland's SW schedule, now revived

*BBCWS Discovery on Marconi centennial is archived until Friday Jan 4 at 1900, when replaced by new show
<http://www.bbc.co.uk/cgi-bin/worldservice/sheep.pl/worldservice/discovery.ra>

*Luxembourg MW superpower started carrying three hours of China including English, via WRN; reduced power or full 1200 kW? See Media Network for a report on this and recording

*R. Africa International, Vienna, Austria, complex schedule, English timings

*R. Yugoslavia website says ``back in a month due to technical problems''; actually funding cut and can't pay Bosnian Serb power bills, but Yugo minister says it will be paid from 2002 budget

*Samorodinka Radio, Moscow pirate on 75m, schedule from QSL

*Learn Greek, from Voice of Greece rediscovered; bureaucratic delays mean 250 kW SW transmitters from US have not even been unpacked

*R. Bayrak, Turkish Cyprus, window for reception clear of interference

*Israeli proposes US establish a Radio Free Gaza for Palestinians

*V. of Islamic Revolution of Iraq, from Iran, heard on three channels at once

*Patriotic Union of Kurdistan, PUK started Kurdsat TV to North America -- see DXLD 1-210 for details

*R. Sultanate of Oman's English broadcasts confirmed resumed after

Ramadan

- *Turkmenistan's only English broadcast, 10 minutes around sunset
- *New Tajikistan relays of R. Liberty, VOA, on 60 m, but Moscow feed centre mixes up languages and services
- *Standard disclaimer
  - *You're listening to the 1112th edition of World of Radio; E-mail wghauser@hotmail.com --- site <http://www.worldofradio.com> --- fax if really necessary, 1-580-233-2948 attn Hauser; P-mail P O Box 1684, Enid OK 73702 USA
  - *Standard disclaimer [again, making up for some weeks I forgot it]
  - *Many thanks this week for financial support go to: Gerald T. Pollard
  - *BBCM confirms AM and FM frequencies of R. Afghanistan, Kabul; was the FM heard only by sporadic E?
  - *R. Voice of Afghanistan, from outside, offers to run commercials
  - *Imperial Couple of Japan issue waka poems New Years Day inspired by Afghanistan
  - *V. of Jammu & Kashmir Freedom, from Pakistan, reconfirmed with brief English segment, anti-India
  - *R. Taipei International drops daily Chinese lessons
  - *Extensive frequency schedule of all domestic and external SW broadcasts from India in DXLD 2-002
  - *National Radio, Australia's ``The Great Marconigram'' can be heard on demand, but only until January 22:
<http://www.abc.net.au/rn/events/radio100/default.htm>
  - *Final half hour monitored of KAIM, Hawaii
  - *Why WTAW, Texas X-band station, gets out so well compared to others
  - *Buffalo's powerhouse WWKB ignores snow emergency, disgraceful
  - *Rumors flying that WSM Nashville may dump country format for sports
  - *Abrupt and rude format change Jan 1 in Miami, WTMI from classical to dance; see DXLD 2-002
  - *Comedy shows online including Tom Lehrer <http://www.comedycollege.net>
  - *Historic days for TVDX, Dec 30-31, 2001, when F2 layer brought Trinidad and Venezuelan channel 2 stations to USA, Canada; see DXLD 2-001; some stills posted by Bill Hepburn at <http://members.rogers.com/cyyz1/F2/YVVG.html>
  - *1951 issue of White's Radio Log now visible courtesy WTFDA, includes SW station list showing mostly callsigns, at <http://members.fortunecity.com/wtfdamem/WRL.html>
  - *Propagation outlook from Boulder: flux range 230-220-260-235
  - *So concludes another World of Radio, number 1,112
  - *Reminder of our new active website, <http://www.worldofradio.com>
  - *Join me again next week for another edition of World of Radio ####